

Now Casting Second Gens and their Parent (or Grandparent) to explore their origin story for a new TV series.

In 'HOW I GOT HERE', Canadian or American born 14-30 year olds will embark on an adventure of a lifetime as they travel with their Parent back to their country of origin.

You will immerse yourself in special customs, enjoy thrilling local activities and reunite with important people from your parent's past.

Through this experience you will uncover the challenges and sacrifices that your parent overcame to come to Canada or the US. 'How I Got Here' brings two generations closer together by sharing a trip you both will remember for the rest of your lives!
